

Ellinwood Ball Hawks Capture First Win on Friday the 13th

By SONNIE and JOE TOMCHAK
FR 5-6662

The Ellinwood ball team had its first game on Friday, Aug. 13 but the unlucky day didn't prove unlucky for "Our Boys." No sir, they got right in there and won. They were playing against a local team of high school boys but the youngsters didn't have what it takes and Ellinwood was victorious 15 to 13 in what was obviously a pitcher's battle! All kidding aside, the team is to be congratulated on doing so well in its first game. The members were so enthusiastic that they planned another game which was played last Friday.

work for a short time. Jeanne, who was an executive secretary for the Los Angeles Mirror before her marriage has consented to return to her job for three weeks and substitute for several girls who are taking their annual vacation.

The Orville Robinson family motored to Nevada last week to start their vacation.

John Fosterling, Ray Smith, Tom Doudna and Dave Buoy presented a group of boys to the Redskin-Rams game last Wednesday night. The boys were all from the playground group where Ray Smith is acting as a recreational leader this summer.

Vacations are still a topic of conversation at this time of the year and we have several to report. Michael Reed, of 4817 Highgrove Ave., left Friday, Aug. 20 for Lake Elsinore. Mike will spend a week there, enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Haller, his maternal grandmother.

Jack and Bobette Reinhart and their three children, Jennifer, 8, Jill, 6, and Tim, 3, who live at 4805 Highgrove Ave., are leaving Aug. 25 for Kokomo, Ind. Both of the Reinhart's families reside in that city. The family is motoring there and expect to be gone two weeks.

Edgar S. Kirkbride, of 4636 Highgrove Ave., is a sadder but wiser man following his recent deer hunting expedition. Edgar and three of his friends spent a week looking for the elusive animals at Atascadero Lake but all Edgar has to show for the trip is a severe case of poison oak on his legs. So that's why so many hunters wear those high boots, huh Edgar?

Ann Mock, sister of Bill Mock, of 4821 Highgrove Ave., arrived here Friday, Aug. 13, from Nebraska. Ann, who is 20, will soon be graduating from nursing school. She intends to stay with her brother and his family for about two weeks.

The David Harneys of 4609 Highgrove Ave., have returned from their recent train trip to Chicago and report that all is well with their folks there.

Craig Marshall, 5, was honored with a birthday party at his home, 3035 Pacific Coast Highway, on Sunday, Aug. 15. Those present included Brian, Tobey Lynn and Cris Marshall, Donna Bronder, Judy and Phillip Witte, and Ricky and Michelle DeArmitt. The decorations were on a western theme and the cake carried out this motif with a cowboy outlined in the icing.

Ray and Janice Lee, of Green Meadows Ave., are spending a few days in San Diego. Ray's business takes him there frequently and Janice accompanied him on this trip to combine business with pleasure.

Joan and Don Nelson, of 5108 Pacific Coast Hwy., held a unique party on last Saturday. The party was held in their garage and no one had to worry about cigarette ashes on the rug or those ugly glass rings on the furniture. Enjoying the dancing and fun were Dick and Laura DeArmitt, Helen and Louie Draeger, Joe and Dottie Cooke, Bill and Janet Snood, Mary and Lloyd Batson, Bob Warner and Mary Marshall.

Jeanne Asher, of 4608 Pacific Coast Highway, has returned to Another neighborhood party was held Saturday in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Adams, of 4724 Highgrove Ave. The neighbors were joined in the merriment were Messrs. and Mrs. Richard Blumenthal, Rudy Asman, Bruce Baumgardner, Marvina Kent, Tom East, all of Highgrove Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Steinbacher, of La Crescenta, who were house guests of the Baumgardners over the weekend.

Trio Admitted To Occidental

John Beeman, Ronnie Busch and Aubrey Henderson, residents of Torrance, have been accepted for admission to Occidental College for the fall term beginning Monday, Sept. 13, according to announcement by Registrar Florence N. Brady. Two-day registration will be held the preceding Thursday and Friday, Sept. 9 and 10.

Acceptance is on the basis of a combination of scholarship, high scores in aptitude tests and recommendations by responsible persons.

The new students will attend a series of pre-school events and be honored guests at a reception to be given at the campus home of President and Mrs. Arthur G. Coons, at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 8.

A stork shower was held for Mrs. Mary Johnson on Thursday, Aug. 12, in Wilmington. The shower was given by Betty Gregory and Kay Ulrich, former neighbors of Mary. Others at the party were June Dunn, Joan Raemaker, Alice Johnson, Elva Johnson, Olive Willis, Joann Stotts, Marilyn Lofthus, Barbara Kilkelly, Marion Zurborg, Matred Oge, Melba Frye and Ruth Wineteer. Two guests, Beverly Shepard and Claudia Huddleston, could not be present but sent gifts. The girls played several word games and those winning prizes included June Dunn, Melba Frye and Marilyn Lofthus. The refreshments consisted of ice cream cake, in a pink and blue design, candy, coffee and tea.

Beeman is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Beeman, 1518 E. Prado Ave.; Busch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Busch, 23861 Ward St.; and Henderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Henderson, 337 E. 220th St.

Dale C. Reid Aboard Transport USS Cobb

Midn. 1/c Dale C. Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Reid of Lomita, Calif., a student at the University of California, is aboard the high speed transport USS W. B. Cobb, taking part in the summer's second midshipman training cruise to Europe. The training squadron, under the command of Rear Admiral George F. Cooper, USN, left Norfolk, Va., on July 12th and is scheduled to return Sept. 3rd.

Jo Ann and Tom Doudna entertained guests last Saturday evening in their home on Green Meadows Ave. The main diversion of the evening was bridge and three tables were in play. After the game the guests were served coffee and frozen dessert.

SWAP TALES AGAIN... Tom Watson (left) and Claude Shea swap tales of their Klondike experiences again in Vancouver, B. C. where the International Sourdough Assn. is meeting. The two first met in 1900 in Nome, Alaska.

Klondike Buddies Whoop It Up Again in the North

Veterans of the Klondike are whooping it up again this week as hundreds of men and women gathered in Vancouver, B.C., to attend the 23rd annual reunion of the International Sourdough Assoc. The magic cry of gold that lured them from the four corners of the earth to the Klondike in 1898 might be only a faint echo now, but the fun and hardships are being recalled as "if it were yesterday." Sourdough Tom Watson, of 1446 W. 219th St., reported to the Herald today.

Watson, a Torrance plastering contractor, is in Vancouver attending the reunion. He was reunited again with Claude Shea, a Klondike buddy of 53 years ago, who visited him in Torrance a year ago during the Sourdough reunion in Long Beach. Shea, now a resident of Mount Vernon, Calif., first met Watson in 1900 when Watson accompanied his father on a prospecting trip out of Nome, Alaska.

The two adventurers were busy with hundreds of other Sourdoughs recalling events of the past. Watson and Shea were busy relating accounts of a gun duel between the Nome police chief and his deputy "over a woman."

Shea told a reporter for the Vancouver Province last week that he witnessed the shooting. "Nome was the roughest camp in the north with 30,000 people in tents," Shea said. "My mother nearly smothered me to protect me when the shooting started that day. I saw the deputy shot and killed before my eyes."
